Pioneer Laurel Business Man Taken by Death

Jones county lost one of its est and best loved citizens during the past week-end when J. A. Trest, age 84, died, following a long and useful life.

Mr. Trest was kind and considerate with family, friends, and others with whom he came in contact during his business and social life.

He was active in the business [illegible] of Sandersville, Ellisville, Laurel and Hattiesburg. In fact he spent most of his life in Jones county, and besides being connected with leading mercantile establishments in the named towns, Mr. Trest operated his hardware business at 410 Central avenue.

He was born near Ovett on January 15, 1868, and spent his early life in Sandersville where he was associated with the Dick Bonner Mercantile company. Mr. Trest prepared himself for office management and business at Soule College in New Orleans. While at Sandersville he married Miss Willie Rowell.

Later they moved to Ellisville, where Mr. Trest kept books for the old J. P. Myer Mercantile company. After that he moved to Laurel where he was office manager for the Frank Gardner Hardware and Supply Co., for many years.

In about 1919 or 20 he resigned from Frank Gardner and opened his own hardware business. Later he was attracted to Hattiesburg where he [illegible] the Will-Reese Hardware Co. for five years. Then he retired and spent the remainder of his life on Waynesboro Drive. He was living with his daughter, Mrs. Lewis Hopper at the time of his death.

Mr. Trest was a devout Presbyterian. He joined that church at New Hope, now Red Hill, when he was nine years old. He kept his membership at Sandersville until he moved to Laurel where he was a charter member of the First Presbyterian church. He served as a deacon and then was an elder for 40 years.

His retirement from business was not a retirement from church. Mr. Trest was a regular attendant at Sunday School and church services as long as he was able to go out.

Death came Saturday night in a local hospital. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the church where he had been an official for many years. His pastor, Dr. C. L. Tucker, conducted the services and burial was in the Sandersville cemetery.

Those who survive are: his daughter, Mrs. Lewis D. Hopper, Laurel; a granddaughter, Mrs. Kenneth B. Smith, two great grandchildren, Benton Harbor, three brothers, Trest, Carriere, Miss., Angus B. Trest, Lucedale, Norman M. Trest, Rt. 1, Laurel, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Paul Hahn, K. Ratcliff, Stroud Stephens, A. L. Foote, Joe McInnis and Al Brush.

104-YEAR OLD IS DEAD IN STATE; SO IS 101-YEAR OLD

LUCEDALE — Angus Bruce Trest, believed to be George County's oldest resident, died Sunday at the age of 104.

Death came to the aged former employee of the GM&O Railroad and retired farmer at his home in the Rocky Creek Community. Although bedridden for several months Trest had formerly been extremely active, and had made his first visit to the dentist's office only last year.

A native of Ovette in Jones County, Trest lived in George county for 30 years and was a member of Oak Grove Baptist Church.

Services are set for 2 p.m. Monday from the Oak Grove Baptist Church with burial to be in the Wilmer, Ala., cemetery. Fails Funeral service of Lucedale is in charge of arrangements. The body will be at the residence until service time.

He leaves three daughters, Mrs. Rachel Davis and Mrs. Velia Davis, both of Lucedale, Mrs. Edna Russell, Wilmer, Ala.; one son, Claude Trest, Baton Rouge, La.; 26 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren, and 30 great-great grandchildren.
